

* all are welcome *

Manoomin Cultural Camp

Aug. 29-31, 2018
(Aug 29 & 30 9am -6pm; Aug 31 9am-Noon)

Located at the Ford Center & Forest
Alberta, MI

Join us as we prepare for Manoomin Camp with teachings, sharing stories, constructing ricing tools (paddles, sticks, & poles), preparing feast bundles, and making a tobacco pouch and a pair of baby moccasins.

The Canoomin activity will be Aug 31 (tentatively 10am-2pm) – limited spots are available – includes canoe and water safety, and pushpole training for harvesting manoomin. Teachers will train 20 participants.

Advance Registration is Required for this Special Activity

go to <https://goo.gl/forms/Ec0KbReE5I23sRUV2>

or the KBIC/NRD website for the registration link <http://nrd.kbic-nsn.gov/>

(Advance Registration for Manoomin Culture Camp is Appreciated)

FREE event made possible with our partnerships:

KBOCC, KBIC/Natural Resource Department, Great Lakes Indian Fish and Wildlife Commission, & MTU's Great Lakes Research Center, School of Forest Resources & Environmental Science, and Ford Center & Forest, Roger LaBine, and Scott Herron

Miigwetch!

KBIC/Youth programs, NMU/Center for Native American Studies, and Michigan DNR for their support in this cultural event.

For more information contact:

Kathy Smith KBIC/NRD
Val Gagnon MTU

(906) 524-5757
(906) 487-2280

ksmith@kbic-nsn.gov
vsgagnon@mtu.edu

Michigan Tech

